“The 2007 Pinot Noir Willamette Valley is medium ruby-colored with an enticing bouquet of toast, cinnamon, rose petal, cherry, and cranberry. Sweet and seamless on the palate, this elegant effort has a bit of structure, excellent concentration, and a lengthy, fruit-filled finish. Drink it over the next 6 years.” - Jay Miller

“Almost 15,000 cases are made of this sturdy, solid Willamette Valley Pinot Noir. It’s got more muscle and weight than the cheaper stuff from elsewhere, though not the textural interest and nuance of many single vineyard bottling. So it falls, right in the middle, and is priced accordingly, delivering red fruits, hints of herb, light toast and coffee-flavored tannins.” -P.G.
